

I support RM-10352. I believe a division of wideband and narrowband modes on the 160 meter band is essential to the efficient use of the band. This would provide spectrum for experimentation with narrowband modes and equipment and for weak-signal activities. Conflicts between users of the two modes would be reduced. Allocation of the band would be brought into compliance with that of the other HF amateur bands.